JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the applicable Scheduling Order, counsel for the defendant and counsel for the United States inform the Court as follows:

- A plea agreement has been signed and filed.
- The parties have agreed on a plea agreement and a written plea agreement will be filed no later than January 6, 2023.
- The defendant intends to plead guilty without a written plea agreement.

If any of the above three boxes is checked, check at least one box below:

- the defendant consents to a video conference Rule 11 hearing.
- the defendant consents to a teleconference Rule 11 hearing.
- the defendant is or will be ready to proceed with a Rule 11 hearing as soon as an in-person hearing can be scheduled.

The matter is not ready for Rule 11 hearing or trial because:

Counsel for the government has not been able to communicate with counsel for Mr. McBryde. A plea offer was extended to Mr. McBryde's counsel on February 17, 2023. At present it is unclear whether the matter is for trial or for plea.

The motion does does not require a hearing at which the defendant must be present.

There are outstanding discovery issues which must be resolved.

The defendant does not intend to plead guilty, and the case needs to be set for jury trial.

Scheduling limitations or issues, if any: _____.

Trial time estimate: _____ (from beginning of jury selection to submission to the jury).

The parties have discussed the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act and

The Government has filed intends to file a motion to exclude time from Speedy Trial Act calculations, to which the defendant will not or does not object.

There are no Speedy Trial Act issues if the matter can be heard during the January 2023 Criminal Term.

There are no Speedy Trial Act issues as the Defendant has already pled guilty at arraignment.

Other information relevant to scheduling:

If the parties agree on a scheduling or case management plan, provide the agreement here or in an attachment, with any explanation needed as to its propriety: _____.

This, the 2nd day of March, 2023.
